

Casino

By Daniel Varona

Up, down, forward, backward
This roulette, a typhoon
Any and every which way
The house always wins,
But it's impossible to lose

Pay to play, try
And credits overflow
The casino gives the house away
But no deal is good enough

Everything for everything
Everything for nothing
Anything, give or take
This or that, roll call –
Only the dealer shows up

I'll shuffle anyway
Luck works days, nights & weekends
Prime time or graveyard shift
I'll be there
Only winners allowed
But it's impossible to lose
